

HELVHET Workshop
'Current Research in the History and Philosophy of Economics in Switzerland and Beyond'
October 22, 2021
University of Lausanne, Switzerland

Location
UNIL, Anthropole building, Room 5033.

Covid-19 QR code and mask are obligatory.

Organization and Contact
Harro Maas: harro.maas@unil.ch
Catherine Herfeld: catherine.herfeld@uzh.ch
Verena Halsmayer: verena.halsmayer@unilu.ch
For details about livestream access, please contact the local organizer Harro Maas.

© "The Prophets", Marilou Lemmens and Richard Ibgby

Program

10:45 -11:00am Welcome

11:00 – 11:50am Federico D'Onofrio (University of Vienna)
The intentional spread of farm accounting offices in Europe (1870-1950).

11:50 – 12:10am Coffee break

12:10 - 1:00pm Alexandra Quack (University of Zurich)
Probing Narrative as a De-idealizing Strategy – 'Superstar Firm' Models in Economics as a Test Case.

1:00 - 2:30pm Lunch

2:30 -3:20pm Eva-Maria Muschik (University of Vienna) A Global Consensus? Following the Shock Doctrine from La Paz to Warsaw in the Long 1980s.

3:20 - 4:10pm David Sarech (University of Lausanne) Lost in transition: Charles Bettelheim and the other socialist calculations.

4.10 - 4:40pm Coffee break

4:40 - 5:30pm Theresa Steffestun (University of Lausanne/Cusanus University) Psyche and Power - The Problem and Principle of Association in the work of Friedrich Wieser.

5:30 - 6:20pm Cléo Chassonnery-Zaïchouche (Cambridge University) Contested Rational Decisions: Economic Expertise in the Comparable Worth Controversy, 1979-1989.

7:15pm Dinner