

Values and Valuations in the History of Economic Knowledge

HELVHET 2022

University of Lucerne, Raum 4.B02

September 13, 2022

11:00am – 11:10am Welcome

11:10am – 12:00pm

Pascal Germann (University of Berne)

“Health and Welfare after the Boom. A History of Quality of Life Knowledge, 1960-2000”

12:00 – 12:20pm Coffee break

12:20 – 1:10pm

Maria Bach (University of Lausanne)

“What Counts in the Periphery? Evidence from Indian and Nigerian National Accounts”

1:10 – 2:30pm Lunch

2:30 – 3:20pm

Magaly Tornay (University of Berne)

“Values, Prices, and Norms: Economic and Moral Valuations in the History of Biomedical Ethics”

3:20 – 3:40pm Coffee break

3:40 – 4:30pm

Rafaël Lazega (University of Lausanne)

“Frank Knight’s Theory of Lower and Higher Values”

4:30 – 4:50pm Coffee break

4:50 – 5:40pm

Anna Echterhölter (University of Vienna)

“At war with Measures. Point Prices and the Development of Value Rationing”

5:40 – 6:10pm

Concluding comments by Cléo Chassonnery-Zaigouche (University of Cambridge)

Final discussion

Discussants: François Allisson (University of Lausanne), Federico D’Onofrio (University of Vienna), Verena Halsmayer (University of Lucerne), Catherine Herfeld (University of Zurich), Harro Maas (University of Lausanne), Alexandra Quack (University of Zurich), Theresa Steffestun (University of Lausanne), Monika Wulz (ETH Zurich).

Organizers: Verena Halsmayer, (University of Lucerne), Monika Wulz (ETH Zurich), Catherine Herfeld (University of Zurich), Harro Maas (University of Lausanne).